

Grade: Junior/Senior		Date(s): November 21, 2007
Teacher: Daly		Subject: AP US History
Lesson Topic/Purpose: Thanksgiving Special
Objectives		MA Framework
Summarize the relationship between Wampanoags and Pilgrims during the first year of the Plimoth settlement Analyze the events that comprised the “first Thanksgiving”—give special attention to the place of the Wampanoags Incorporated Character Virtue(s): Truth/Honesty, Responsibility, Perseverance, Kindness, Fairness, Courage, Respect, True-Friendship, Self-Discipline, Citizenship		NOT APPLICABLE
Opening Assignment
What do you think you know about the “first Thanksgiving”? (What time of year was it held, by whom , for whom? How was it celebrated?)
Procedures		Resource Materials	Assessment
Students will answer the questions above Students will read the “peace treaty” between the Wampanoags and the Pilgrims (found in Mourt’s Relation: A Journal of the Pilgrims at Plymouth, 1622, part 1) Students will read Edward Winslow’s account of the “first Thanksgiving” Students will consider the following questions: What was the relationship between the Pilgrims and the Wampanoags as set forth in the treaty? (Was it one of equals? Explain and cite)How did the English regard the natives? What qualities did they ascribe to them? How did they think the Wampanoags regarded them? (Explain and cite)Describe the “first Thanksgiving” as Winslow portrayed it. Why might 90 Wampanoag warriors have showed up? (Is there any indication that they were invited?)		Textbook	Check homework
		Overhead Masters	Test/Quiz
		Workbook/Handouts	Project
		Multimedia Materials	Participation
		Hands-On Materials	Classwork
		Reference Materials	Review
		Other Supplies	Presentation
		Computer	Oral Responses
			Teacher Observation
			Group work
	Other
Accommodations For Lower Students		Accommodations For Higher Students
Not Applicable		Not Applicable
Homework			